

Society for Head and Neck Anesthesia

2025 Annual Meeting & Symposium:

“Urgent/Emergent Airway Management: One Airway, Many Experts”

October 12, 2025

6:00pm-9:30pm CT

Iron Cactus: San Antonio
200 Riverwalk St. #100
San Antonio, TX 78205

The Society for Head and Neck Anesthesia is a physicians' organization dedicated to improving the anesthesia and perioperative care of patients undergoing head and neck surgeries through clinical excellence, education, and research.

Personal Invitation

Come join us for an evening of fellowship with your peers, learning from a variety of accomplished colleagues and authentic Tex-Mex food (Iron Steaks, Pescador Atlantic Cod, Chili Relleno, Mexican Chocolate Mousse, etc.) and libations (Margarites and full bar) at one of San Antonio's premier restaurants—The Iron Cactus

Meeting Learning Objectives

At the end of this activity, participants will be able to:

- Critically evaluate complex clinical scenarios in head and neck anesthesiology and surgery to refine approaches to airway risk assessment and perioperative airway management.
- Demonstrate effective interdisciplinary communication strategies to enhance coordination and decision-making in the care of difficult airway patients.
- Appraise current and emerging evidence to optimize outcomes in head and neck and advanced airway procedures.
- Design and implement advanced strategies for oxygenation and ventilation in patients with anatomically challenging airways.
